

IN+FORM
innovative structures

"From start to finish, Bill Franklin was at the heart of our residential solar array installation. He was an invaluable resource. Accessible and available, he always responded to our needs quickly with patience and thoroughness."

The unique solar pavilion Bill created graces our house, adding value not only for the practical purpose it serves in supporting solar panels, but also for the dramatic elegance it adds to the appearance of our house".

-Chuck and Janet P., Seattle

bronze and cedar timber frame option new

the beauty of natural wood

steel frame option

steel offers efficiency + durability

"Bill provided far more than expert architectural designs and feedback. He also provided our project team with leadership and ongoing advice, going above and beyond to support our team".

-CEO, Cocoon House

Inform Prefab, LLC
licensed - bonded - insured
www.InformPrefab.com
206.919.5830

license# INFORPL864J8

IN+FORM
innovative structures

IN+

IN+FORM

innovative structures

This Solar Pavilion in Auburn, Washington offers shade and weather protection, while the solar module roof generates 4,200 watts of clean electrical power, offsetting 40% of the home's annual electrical use.

weather-protection + power generation

solar pavilions

Our Full-Service approach offers a turn-key solution, including custom design, 3-D visualizations, permits, custom paint and stain colors, and complete on-site installation.

IN+FORM

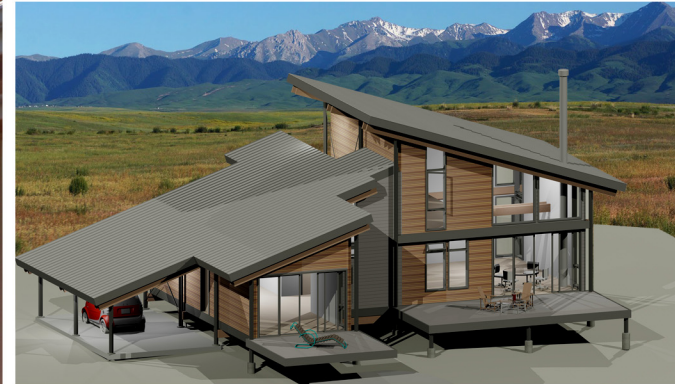

innovative structures

16016 Interlake Avenue North
Shoreline, Washington 98133
206.919.5830

Bill Franklin, AIA, LEED AP
Bill@InformPrefab.com

residential

Design flexibility and shortened on-site construction duration

backyard cottages

An ideal solution for backyard cottages

www.InformPrefab.com
all content copyright 2015 - Inform Prefab, LLC - all rights reserved